

Dear Partner,

April at VR Ambarsar was a vibrant mix of art, culture, and community engagement. From the Young Artists Program to energetic Baisakhi celebrations, the month was filled with creativity and festive spirit. It concluded with VR Weekender, celebrating music and emerging talent.

We look forward to an equally exciting May ahead—curating engaging experiences and creating more reasons for the community to come together.

Warm regards,
Team VR Ambarsar

HIGHLIGHTS

YOUNG ARTISTS PROGRAM

2nd April 2026

As part of the Punjab Art Initiative, the Young Artists Program provided children with a meaningful platform for artistic expression. The event witnessed enthusiastic participation, with students showcasing diverse and imaginative perspectives through their artwork.

WATERCOLOUR PAINTING WORKSHOP

5th April 2026

Students from various schools enthusiastically participated in a watercolour workshop at VR Ambarsar. The workshop encouraged young minds to explore creativity, learn artistic techniques, and express themselves through vibrant colors.

It marked the culmination of the 6th edition of the Punjab Art Initiative—a month long, student-led public art festival celebrating creativity, collaboration, and community engagement.

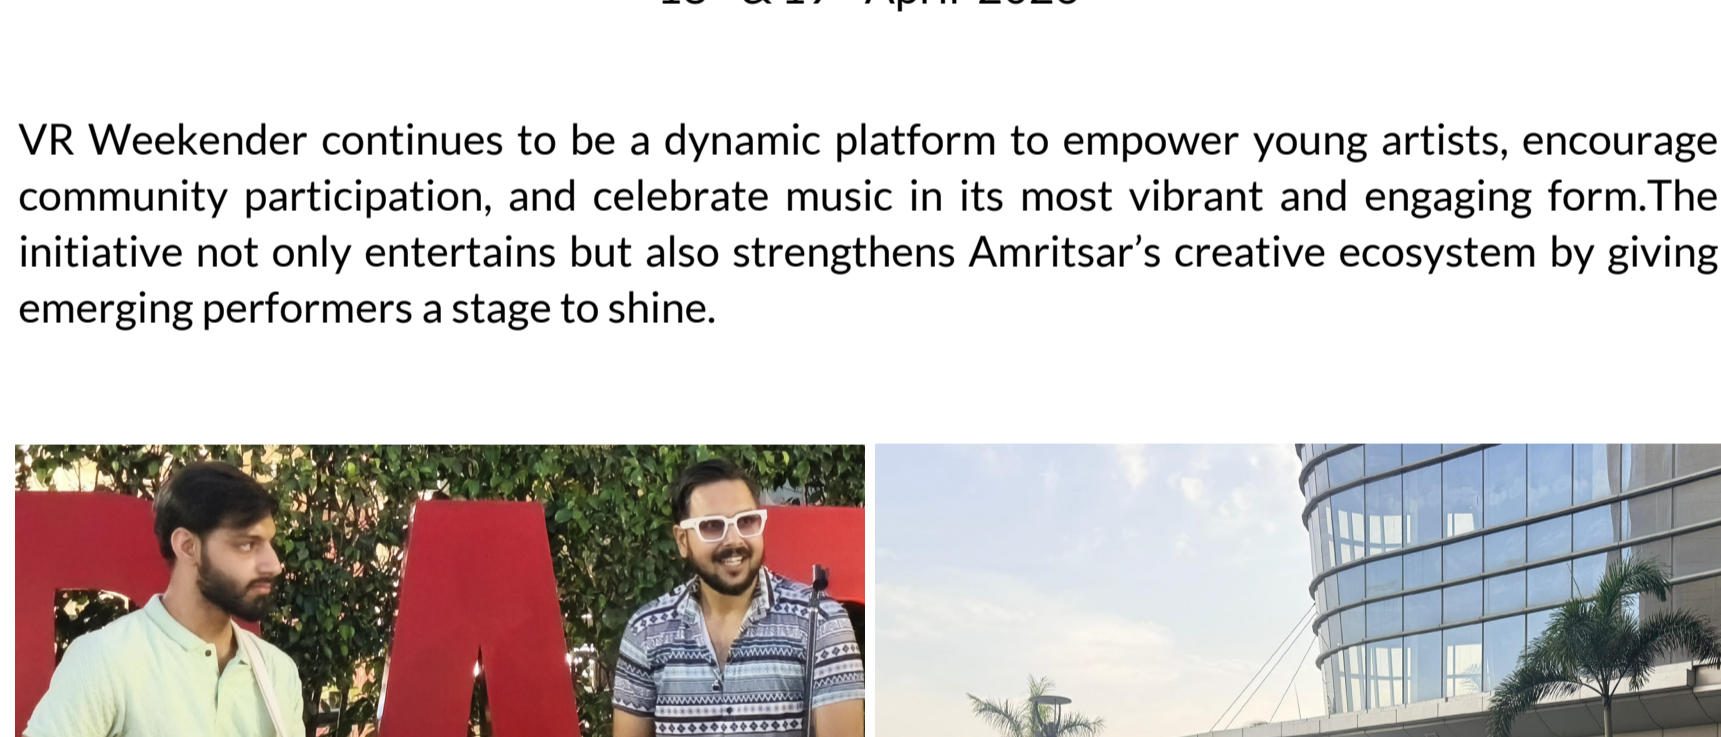

BAISAKHI CELEBRATIONS

14th April 2026

Baisakhi was celebrated with great enthusiasm at VR Ambarsar, bringing together talented young performers from various schools and academies.

The event came alive with vibrant performances of traditional Bhangra and Gidda, beautifully showcasing the rich cultural heritage of Punjab.

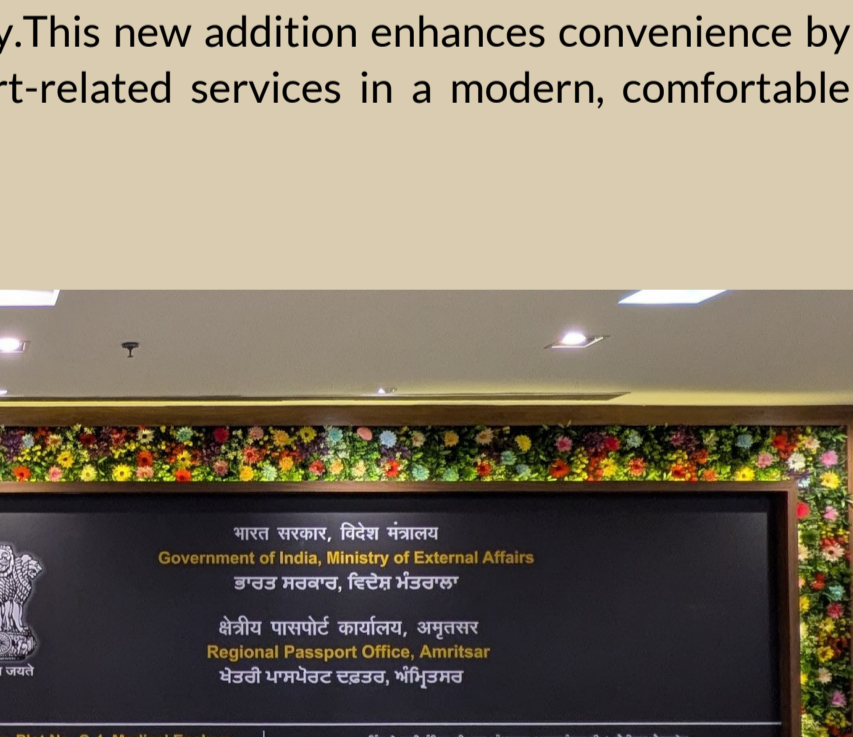

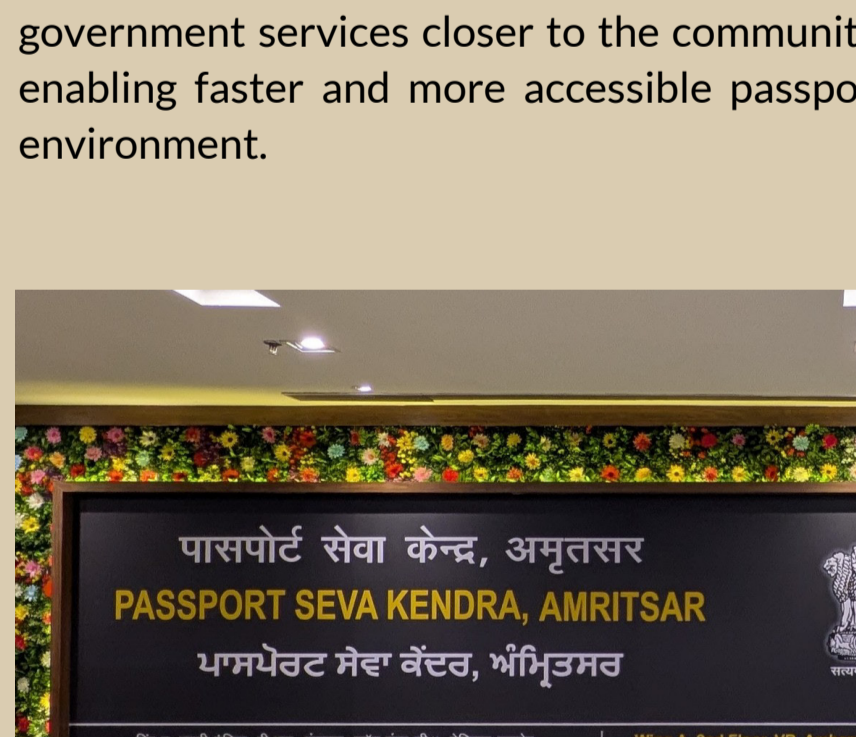

VR WEEKENDER

18th & 19th April 2026

VR Weekender continues to be a dynamic platform to empower young artists, encourage community participation, and celebrate music in its most vibrant and engaging form.

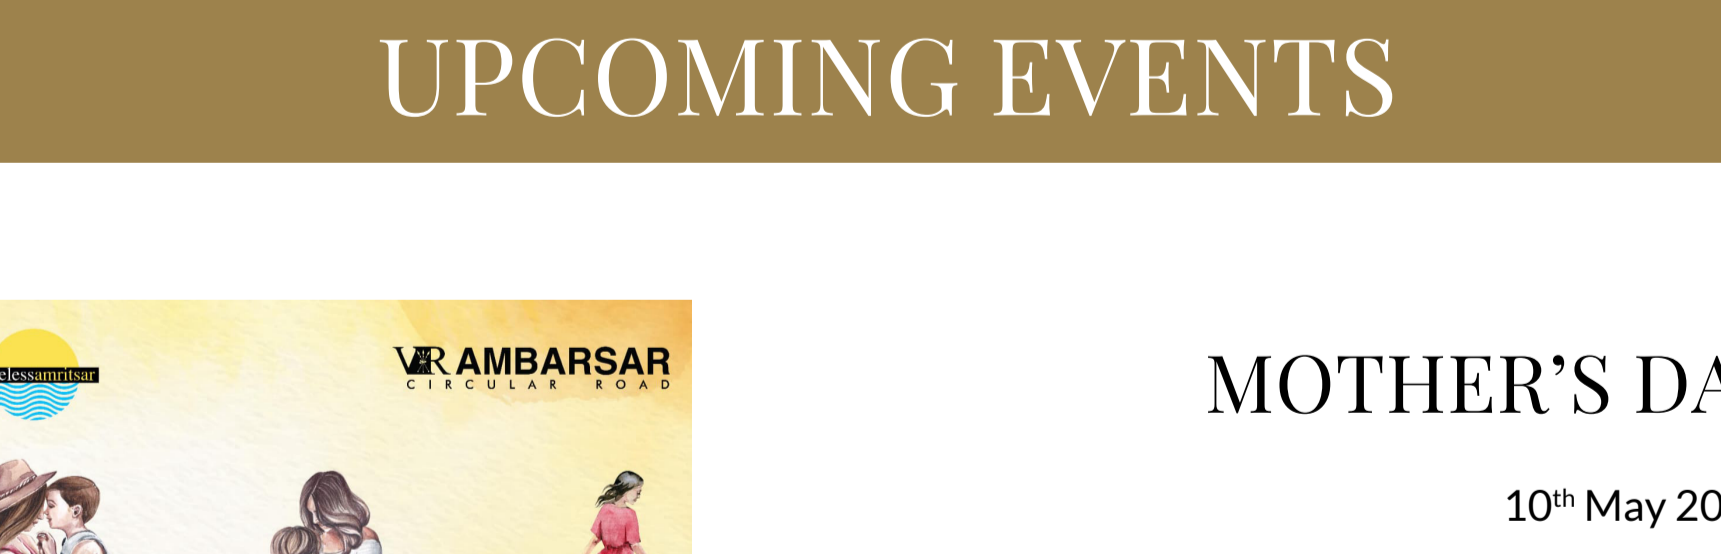

The initiative not only entertains but also strengthens Amritsar's creative ecosystem by giving emerging performers a stage to shine.

NOW OPEN

PASSPORT SEVA KENDRA

The Passport Seva Kendra is now operational at VR Ambarsar, bringing essential government services closer to the community. This new addition enhances convenience by enabling faster and more accessible passport-related services in a modern, comfortable environment.
